

Oconee County Library Board
January 16, 1984 10 AM
Oconee County Library

Presiding: Wanda Langley

Attending: Langley, Rice, Christopher, Dawson, Hardigree,
Wiley, Budd, Wells, Grayson, Jey, Ames
Austin, Brown.

The Oconee County Library Board met on January 16, 1984 for its quarterly meeting at 10 AM. The minutes were read and approved. The treasurer's report showed a balance in the general fund of $543.31 and in the map fund of $775.00 and a saving certificate of $1000.00 making a total of $2,318.41.

Mrs. Billie Brown reported things were running smoothly with the observance of National Children's Book Week in November, a children's Christmas workshop and an adult Christmas OpenHouse. 17 new families joined the library in the last 3 weeks. Gifts to the library included three books by Lester Langley, $100. for books for the Jey collection by Pattie Jey and $100.00 by Mr. McDonald Palsgaard.

Mrs. Kathy Ames reported that both the library in Watkinsville and Bogart have been very busy. All the schoolchildren from preschool through 4th grade were shown Christmas films. Circulation has increased in Bogart.

Miss Roxanne Austin reported on The Georgia Library Association meeting in October which Billie Brown also attended. Miss Austin told of The Governor's Reduction of Book Funds of $8,000. and of House Bill #840 on The proposed revision of law concerning libraries and The Regional Library systems. She asked the board members to be in touch with our state legislators about matters concerning libraries.

Under the unfinished business, Mrs. Langley reported on the status of the maintenance contract for the library. Mrs. Langley and Mrs. Brown wrote a job description for the maintenance work needed at the library, and this job description was presented to the Oconee County Board of Commissioners. The commissioners have hired an outside firm to do the work, but a written contract has not been signed. Mrs. Langley will be meeting this month to work out the details of the contract.

Mrs. Langley welcomed Mrs. Linkey Budd as a new member of the Library Board.

A book, Gates of Fire by Chamberlain, an adult fiction book, was challenged by a patron in December. The patron filled out a complaint form. Mrs. Langley appointed a book review committee of Mrs. Ames, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Wiley and Mrs. Langley to review the book. On the basis of the criteria of the Athens Regional Library Book selection policy, the committee unanimously recommended to the library board that the book, Gates of Fire, remain on the library shelves. A motion was made by Mrs. Wiley and seconded by Mrs. Budd that the vote be conducted by secret ballot. Motion carried. A motion was made by Mrs. Budd and seconded by Mrs. Joy to accept the Book review committee's recommendation that the challenged book, Gates of Fire, remain on the library shelves. By a vote of 8 yes & 2 no the motion carried.

There was a discussion of the need for more part-time and/or full-time help in the library for Mrs. Brown. April is ^{the} time for budgets. By common consent it was decided to hold a reception for the members of our 4 funding agencies (City Councils of Bogart and Watkinsville, Board of Education & Board of Commissioners) to express our appreciation ^{city opinion} for their support. Gayle Christopher will be chairman and Deane Wiley will serve on the committee to plan the reception on a Sunday afternoon with a tentative date of March 4, 1984 from 2-4 pm. There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 11:40 pm.

The Oconee County Library Board met on April 16, 1984 for its quarterly meeting at 10 a.m. The minutes were read and approved as corrected. There was no treasurer's report, but Mrs. Langley reported that there had not been any large expenditures.

Billie Brown reported that the Oconee County Library had been busy as usual. She has worked with several classes from preschool to immediate school. A two day first aid course for DeKalb, & a C.P.R. course by St. Mary's are examples of some of the activities in the library. Mrs. Brown participated in the Oconee County Energy Fair and Career Day at the high school and attended a puppet workshop. Gifts received by the library include:

Nohlgren, a book by James Hansen family, The 1910 Census Index for Oconee & Clarke Counties by Bonita London, the 1910 Census Index of Fulton County by Wilbur Ratterree, $10.00 for Book Fund by Mary Morgan, $100.00 for books on drug & alcohol abuse by The Citizens for Progressive Oconee County, & several new magazine subscriptions. The Girl Scout Troop #119 presented the library with a check for $75.00, the proceeds of a fashion show, to be used for a complete puppet show, and The Watkinsville Woman's Club presented a check for $400.00, the proceeds of their fashion - card party, ~~to buy~~ a projector and things.

There was a discussion of the need for a Public Relations Committee. However, action was delayed until a later meeting.

Kathy Ames reported that the theme of the Summer Reading Club would be "Race through Summer with Books." Oconee County had to send back $882.00 from its Book Fund due to state cut backs. Roxanna Austin brought the Board up-to-date on legislative matters. House Bill # 840 did pass and will bring about long needed revisions in the Library Regional systems. The Book Fund and M+O Funds were not increased. Miss Austin reported that the state paid public librarians were omitted from the 10% salary increase of school teachers and school librarians.

The Open House on March 4 for the officials of our funding agencies was a success with most of the County Commissioners and Board of Education members present, and some of Watkinsville city officials attended. The Open House committee of Gayle Christopher, chair & Betty Dawson and Diane Wiley and all board members were thanked by Mrs. Langley.

Under old business, a written contract for one year for maintenance of the inside and outside of the library was signed by the County Commissioners and a cleaning service.

A letter from the Georgia Council of Public Libraries was read urging all board members to contact their local legislators in support of the following recommendations for fiscal year 1986: 1) Salary and salary adjustments (public librarians should be on a par with school librarians) 2) 20¢ per capita increase in materials fund 3) 15¢ per capita increase on M+O funds. Mrs. Langley urged Board members to write Oconee's officials: Rep. Roy Lambert and Sen. Paul Brown before June.

By common consent it was agreed to reserve a book booth for the Fall Festival and make a final decision in July about whether to have a booth at Festival or a book sale in the library.

After a general discussion of the different options available to Oconee County in presenting FY 1985 Budget to our funding agencies, Mrs. Budd moved to present Option #1, the employment of a second full-time clerk, and the motion was seconded by Mrs. Wiley. The motion carried. Miss Austin, Mrs. Langley and Mrs. Christopher will attend the budget meetings with the funding agencies. The future of the Bookmobile service in Oconee County was briefly discussed.

The next meeting will be July 16 at 10 AM. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 11:55 AM.

The Oconee County Library Board met on July 16, 1984 for its quarterly meeting at 10am. The minutes were read and approved. The Treasurer's Report showed a balance in the general fund of $519.74, in the map fund of $911.00 and a savings certificate of $1000.00 making a total of $2,430.74. Mrs Ames reported that approximately 500 children were enrolled in the Summer Reading Club in Watkinsville. The regular summer activities of story hours and filmshowers have been popular. Mrs Ames also stated that Bogart had a larger Summer Reading Club than last year. The file cabinet and slide/tape projector given by The Watkinsville Woman's Club are now in use.

Miss Austin reported that Dr. McDaniel has requested 10% increase for all state paid personnel. She thanked the board members for their letters and contacts with their legislators on the behalf of the libraries, and she urged the board to keep public library needs in front of our state legislators.

Mrs. Langley reported on the budget for 84-85. She thanked The Board of Education for funding our full request. However, The Commissioners did not fund the full request, but did grant an increase. The County Commissioners are renovating the exterior trim of the library which has made a great improvement in the appearance of the library.

after a long discussion of how to make up the necessary funds to fund 30 hours of part-time help that the Board felt was needed to adequately man the library, Dianne Wiley moved and Carolyn McLeray seconded That $1073. ~~of~~ The Board's savings be used to fund the extra 10 hours of part-time help for the fiscal year of 1984-85. This amount will be paid in quarterly payments to The Athens Regional Library. Motion carried. Mrs. Ames stated that the library will be able to increase the hours open. Mrs. Budd moved and Mrs. Wells seconded that as of Sept. 1 the hours will be increased on Mon, Wed and Friday in order to open at 10am instead of 10:30. and that on Sat. and Sun. the hours will be from 2 to 6 pm instead of 2 to 5 pm. The motion carried.

The personnel committee of Mrs. Langley, Mrs. Christopher and Mrs. McLeray ~~recommended that~~ ^{recommended that} the following persons be hired to fill 30 hours of part-time: Ava Arp for 20 hours and Jane McDonald for 10 hours. Mrs. Wells moved That These ladies be hired, seconded by Mrs. Wiley. Motion carried. The book booth at The Fall Festival was discussed. Mrs. Christopher moved that the Board have a used Book sale at the library in November at same time as the Watkinsville business Christmas Open House. The motion was seconded by Mrs. McLeray and carried. Mrs. Christopher was appointed chairman of The Publicity Committee for Book sale. Mrs. Budd was asked to serve on this committee. A need for a new copying machine was discussed as a goal for the Book Sale. Mrs. Langley appointed the Nominating Committee of Virginia Wells, Jim, Lyle Grayson and Jace Hardigree to bring a report to the Oct. meeting. Two board members' terms will expire in Dec. (Dawson & Jay) and a new slate of officers for a 2 year term will be elected.

Mrs. Langley announced That the next meeting will be on Oct. 15 at 10am. There being no further business, The meeting adjourned at 11:55.
